/AT/ ↓	C4	"Fistful of Fives" by Jubilee, pre-1994 - In the "Fistful of Fives" machine by Jubilee, a player is able to insert up to five coins to play up to five win lines on the three main reels. These three reels pay the amounts shown on the front of the machine for certain combinations. For instance, three 7's pays five coins. Spaced-apart from the three main reels are two bonus reels; one displays odds such as even, ten-to-one, six-to-one, five-to-one, etc., while the second bonus reel identifies a win-line of the main reels. When a player wins on the main reels, the winning amount is multiplied by the odds shown on the first bonus reel for the win line shown on the second bonus reel. Thus, for example, "7-7-7" on the main reels, and ten-to-one on the first bonus reel pays 50 coins, if the win lines having the 7-7-7 is show on the second bonus reel. Every spin of the main reels causes a simultaneous spin of the bonus reels. No additional coins are required to participate in the increased odds associated with the bonus reels.)
